

About Joe Casabona

Don't let Joe Casabona's Master's Degree in Computer Science intimidate you; he is a passionate and approachable guy.

Joe started his career almost 20 years ago as a freelance web developer and has been a team lead, system admin, and was even a faculty member at his alma mater, The University of Scranton. Podcasting has been the perfect medium for Joe to share his knowledge and build up his peers. He is not only a veteran podcaster but he helps people launch their own podcasts.

Educator and Family Man

When he's not creating courses or writing books, you can find Joe spending time with his family, enjoying baseball (go Yankees!) or watching Star Wars.

His book, HTML and CSS: Visual QuickStart Guide, 9th Edition, is out now.
